

ADVANCE GUARD MAY ENTER MEXICO TODAY

MAIN FORCE MAY NOT START FOR THREE DAYS REPORTS STATE CARRANZA TROOPS HAVE SURROUNDED VILLA

Little Definite News Gets Thru from Columbus, N. M., on Account of Censorship—Troopers Are Ordered to Leave "Surplus Kits" Behind—"Combat Wagons" Are Loaded—Engineers, Signal and Hospital Corps Get Final Details of Equipment.

BULLETIN.

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 14.—General Funston said tonight he had not been advised of General Pershing's intention to enter Mexico tomorrow morning, but added that General Pershing's orders were such that he might begin the campaign whenever he was ready.

BULLETIN.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Mar. 14.—Half a million cartridges consigned to General Calles were seized here tonight by United States soldiers. Two hundred thousand arrived by freight and three hundred thousand by express. A heavy guard has been placed over them and the American authorities are trying to trace their source.

BULLETIN.

PRESIDIO, Texas, Mar. 14.—A troop of the Thirtieth cavalry is on its way here from Marfa on rush orders following a report that rioting has broken out among the Carranza troops at Ojinaga, across the border from here and that General Rojas, the Carranza commander, has been assassinated.

EL PASO, Texas, Mar. 14.—Points near Columbus, N. M., where the American expeditionary force is gathering reported tonight that preparations were under way indicating that the advance guard of the first expeditionary force may start in pursuit of Villa in a time to be measured by hours. The main force may not start for two or three days.

Report Villa is Surrounded. While the border waited in keen expectancy for word that United States soldiers had crossed the international line reports flowed in from Mexican sources to the effect that Mexico's arch bandit has already been surrounded by the troops of Carranza. The "first chief" was apparently making strenuous efforts to anticipate Americans and was reported from several sources to have concentrated more than 10,000 troops at different points about the Casas Grandes region in Chihuahua where Villa is supposed to be.

The officers of the Tenth Cavalry left here today for Columbus shortly after it was learned that the passage of transport trains between here and the scene of the Villa raid had ceased. They were practically the last of the corps officers who were stationed here. The stoppage of the transport trains was regarded as particularly significant as their movement had never ceased night or day, since the news of the Columbus raid was flashed thru the country. Their stopping now is taken to mean that the concentration of supplies at Columbus had been practically completed.

Little Definite News Gets Thru. On account of the censorship the little definite news that reached here from Columbus was brought by incoming passengers. They reported that while military activities were being carried forward at feverish speed, the indications were that it would be some days at least before the main punitive force moved. It is considered likely however, that some advance scouting parties may cross the border within the next twenty-four hours.

A number of motion picture men, who hurried out of here early today in the belief that the crossing was about to be effected, returned here disappointed. They report that General Pershing, in command of the expedition, had issued positive orders that no pictures could be taken. The strong under-current of excitement along the border was stirred today by news that a Southern Pacific train had been fired upon at Beclim, Texas, seventeen miles east of here. Conductor Rogers, in charge of the train, said that several shots had been fired from underbrush near the station.

Continue to Arrest Mexicans. The local police continue to arrest Mexicans who were supposed to be in communication with the Villistas and eleven, all former officers, generals or cabinet ministers of Villa are now in jail. While there has been no disturbance of any kind here, the apprehension felt by the American population was indicated by heavy sales of guns and ammunition in the last few days. Gun stores reported today that they were almost completely sold out of ammunition.

Two dust covered automobiles were towed in here today from Lanark, 28 miles west on the border. They were the cars three railroad officials had attempted to drive from Columbus here on Sunday. They were chased by Mexicans and boarded a train after distancing their attackers.

Mrs. J. J. Moore, wife of a rancher, who was killed in the retreat of the Villistas from Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Moore was wounded in the leg by a pistol shot and had her rings torn from her fingers by the bandits.

She was left for dead near the corpse of her husband. To Leave "Surplus Kits" Behind. Columbus, N. M., March 14.—The commanding officers of the expeditionary force issued orders tonight that the men should take with them only such equipment as they could carry on their backs or saddles. Extra clothing and the equipment known in the army as the "surplus kit" will be left behind.

These orders were intended to limit carrying facilities to the essentials of the expedition—food and drink for the men and horses and ammunition for the guns. Large quantities of ammunition for the mountain howitzers and the field guns which had been assembled here had been distributed today.

"Combat wagons," which carry ammunition for the soldiers' rifles, were loaded and the engineers, signal and hospital corps were supplied with the final details of their equipment.

The commander of the expedition and his staff were working at high pressure all day completing their arrangements. Soldiers who were not busy unloading the transport trains thronged every bit of high ground watching eagerly for any sign of activity on the other side of the international line. Many times reports came in that bodies of Mexicans had been seen maneuvering to the south but there was nothing to confirm any belief that there were any hostile forces near the border. Apparently authentic information was received to the effect that the Carranza garrison at Palomas had departed south for an unknown destination. This force was sent to the frontier after the Villa raid.

None of the officers of the American expeditionary force would make any statement or intimation as to when the punitive expedition would receive the eagerly awaited word to cross the imaginary line between Mexico and the United States.

Will Inform Public. San Antonio, Tex., March 14.—A censorship has been established at border points on news regarding the Mexican situation by order of General Funston. It was indicated today that when the expeditionary force starts into Mexico the public will be adequately informed as to the progress of events. General Funston who today was arranging final details of the expedition said the censorship was established to keep essential facts regarding troop movements from Villa. In military circles an attitude of expectancy followed the tightening of the censorship.

CONGRESS TAKES NOTE OF SITUATION

House Passes Resolution to Recruit Army to Full Strength

SENATE TO ACT TODAY

Army General Staff Suggests Step—Baker Explains Situation on Border to Cabinet

U. S. REPLY IS SATISFACTORY

WASHINGTON, March 14.—While there were indications in official despatches from Mexico today that the defacto government was making a supreme effort to capture Villa had his bandits with its own forces, there was no sign that General Funston's orders to proceed on the same errand had been modified in any way. Word that American troops had crossed the border was still lacking, the war department itself not having been advised as to when the movement would begin.

Passes Joint Resolution. Congress took active notice of the border situation today for the first time. The house passed a joint resolution late in the day authorizing the recruiting of the mobile regular army to full strength. This means the addition of approximately 20,000 fighting men to the infantry, cavalry and field artillery. The senate is expected to concur tomorrow and the necessary orders will be issued immediately to fill up regiments on border duty.

The step was suggested by the army general staff. It is earnestly desired now because of the weakening of the border force by the expedition after Villa, but ever since the patrol of the border began the army has been greatly handicapped by the skeleton organization of regiments, companies, troops and batteries. The force that occupied Vera Cruz had similar difficulties, some of the companies there being less than forty men strong.

Only One Opposes Resolution. Secretary Baker conferred today with Senator Chamberlain and Representative Hay, chairman of the congressional military committees and later Representative Hay returned to the war department accompanied by Representative Kahn, ranking Republican member of the house committee. The resolution was introduced by Representative Hay immediately upon his return to the capital. Its consideration was expedited by unanimous consent and its passage followed with only Representative London, Socialist, voting against it.

At the state department steps were taken to make it certain that distorted versions of the American purpose in sending armed forces across the border were not given wide circulation in Mexico. By cable, telegraph, radio and mail full statements of all that has transpired recently regarding the Mexican situation went forward to consuls and state department agents throughout the southern republic.

In effect the United States has established a publicity bureau in Mexico to make clear its peaceful purposes toward every resident of Mexico with the exception of Villa and the bandits who raided Columbus. Americans in Mexico can also be kept posted on developments in this manner.

Explains Situation in Detail. The situation along the border was explained in detail to the cabinet today by Secretary Baker with the use of military maps in the cabinet room.

The secretary, it is understood outlined the natural difficulties which General Pershing and his expedition will have to overcome. The cabinet also discussed the proposal to increase the army to full strength.

The cabinet considered also advice from many parts of Mexico, all of an assuring nature. There were no indications among these of any anti-American feeling because of the determination to pursue and capture or kill the bandits. Later the state department made public the following message from its representative at Queretaro, where the Carranza government is now located. The telegram was dated six p. m., March 13th. It reads: "Reply to United States to de facto government's note of March 10th. Columbus border situation received at five this afternoon. Personally presented this important communication orally and in writing to foreign Secretary Aecua at 5:30 p. m. He read same in my presence and afterwards said:

LORIMER HEARS RECITAL OF HIS ALLEGED CRIMES

FORMER SENATOR REMAINS UNPERTURBABLE THROUGHT DENUNCIATION

Assistant State's Attorney States Testimony Not Adduced at Monday Trial Will Be Introduced During the Present Hearing.

Chicago, March 14.—William Lorimer, whose seat in the United States senate was declared vacant on the grounds that it was the result of a political crime, today listened to a recital of his alleged financial crimes.

The recital was by William H. Holly, assistant state's attorney, who told a jury in Judge Dever's branch of the criminal court that the defendant was charged with conspiracy and embezzlement in connection with the failure of the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank in Chicago two years ago.

Mr. Lorimer remained imperturbable through the denunciation. He appeared little changed since the days when Illinois called him the "blonde boss" and a legislature alleged to have been corrupted sent him to the upper house at Washington.

Mr. Holly said that testimony which was not adduced at the trial of C. B. Munday, senior vice president of the bank, who was convicted on similar charges, would be introduced during the present hearing.

Lorimer's defense, it is said, was to be based largely on the contention that Mr. Lorimer, altho president of the institution, trusted the business to Mr. Munday and was himself absent much of the time.

In the course of his address Mr. Holly said that two months after the formation of the bank, Alderman Michael Kenna, the "first ward," who is widely known as "Hinky Dink," political partner of Alderman "Boss" Joseph Coughlin, was appealed to do his banking with the Lorimer-Munday house.

The appeal for Kenna's business was based largely, Mr. Holly said, on the statement that the bank was not a member of the clearing house association and that consequently the financial affairs of its customers were absolutely secret.

Mr. Lorimer started the LaSalle Street National bank in 1910, when he was in the United States senate. "We shall contend," said Mr. Holly, "that Mr. Lorimer was in a position to influence the national bank examiner. There was a large amount of bad paper in the bank. The owners were political friends of the then senator. Bank officials made no effort to get rid of this paper but instead the bank changed its charter from the national to the state form, and became the LaSalle Street Trust & Savings bank."

Mr. Holly said that the first act of conspiracy was committed in making this transformation. He said Mr. Lorimer and associates at the without that amount of money on deposit gave notes for an aggregate of $1,250,000 to the LaSalle bank. In return Mr. Lorimer received a cashier's check for $1,250,000 which he deposited with the Central Trust company, and the latter sent that much currency to the new state bank.

"Not a cent was paid in," said Mr. Holly, "but when the state bank examiner came he found the capital stock, this self same $1,250,000 on hand. The examiner counted the money, gave his approval, and departed. Then the money was sent back to the Central Trust company."

Albert Fink, attorney for Mr. Lorimer, interrupted to ask if Mr. Holly thought that Charles G. Dawes, president of the Central Trust company and former comptroller of the currency, was a party to the conspiracy.

The jury can decide whether he was a party to the conspiracy or was simply victimized by Mr. Lorimer," replied Mr. Holly.

HOLDS ASSOCIATED BILL POSTERS IS AN ILLEGAL COMBINATION

CHICAGO, March 14.—Federal Judge Landis in a decision today held that the Associated Bill Posters of the United States and Canada is a combination in restraint of trade. The rule was given in the government suit asking dissolution of the association filed in August, 1912.

"The rule of 'reasonable restraint' has no application here," said Judge Landis. "For the reason that this is not a case of mere restraint but of total exclusion."

The court also held that the injunction asked by the government to restrain the bill posters from carrying on their business as an organization would not go into effect for sixty days to permit an appeal to the supreme court.

The complaint charged that ever since its organization in 1891 the Associated Bill Posters had sought to crush competition.

Washington, Mar. 14.—The annual executive, judicial and legislative appropriation bill carrying appropriations aggregating $37,000,000 was passed late today by the house.

URGES CONSTRUCTION OF EIGHT OR NINE BATTLE CRUISERS

Captain Sims Also Advises the Building of Many Additional Destroyers.

Washington, March 14.—Immediate construction of eight or nine battle cruisers to provide an element of strength now sadly lacking in the American fleet was urged before the house naval committee today by Captain Sims, commanding the Battleship Nevada.

The captain also advised the building of many additional destroyers. He said that while much had been accomplished toward making armored ships less vulnerable to torpedoes, there had been no solution of the problem of protecting a fleet against torpedo attack in open sea. Therefore, he said, the navy should have plenty of fast craft to chase off destroyers and submarine enemies.

Much information was given the committee by the witness concerning the navies of the world and their operations. He said it was improbable that any great expedition against the United States would ever start from the other side of the Atlantic but from some point in the West Indies would be used as a base. He strongly endorsed the navy department's proposal to promote officers by selection instead of by seniority.

COMMITTEE TO VISIT FREEPORT

Chicago, Mar. 14.—President Al Tearney of the Three Eye League said tonight that the committee appointed to look into the situation at Freeport, Ill., probably would visit that city next Monday.

"We understand that Freeport wants a club but so far no one has taken the lead to crystallize this sentiment into action," said Mr. Tearney. "That will be one of the objects of the visit of the committee. If Freeport does not come in it probably means a six club circuit."

SENATOR SHIVELY IS DEAD IN WASHINGTON

WAS FOR YEARS A PROMINENT FIGURE IN CONGRESS

Indiana Senator Had Been Ill For Many Months and For More Than a Year Had Been Unable to Perform Actively His Official Duties.

Washington, Mar. 14.—Benjamin F. Shively, senior senator from Indiana and for years a prominent figure in congress died late today at a hospital here. He had been ill many months from a complication of diseases and for more than a year had been unable to perform actively his official duties. He was 63 years old.

During three terms in the house and the seven years he had been in the senate, Senator Shively had devoted his activities particularly to foreign affairs and tariff legislation. At the time of his death he was ranking Democratic member of the foreign relations committee. In the house he had been regarded as a tariff expert.

The announcement of Mr. Shively's death was received with many manifestations of sorrow in both the senate and house. Senator Kern, his colleague, in announcing it in the senate said he was performing the saddest duty of his official life. Both there and in the house, resolutions of regret were adopted and adjournment was taken as a further mark of respect.

Senator Shively had suffered from diabetes for nearly fifteen years and a resulting cancerous growth in the throat confined him to his bed in February last year.

His condition became more critical last night but toward morning he rallied. Today he suffered another relapse and Mrs. Shively and a son and daughter were in the sick room during his last hours.

The body will be taken to South Bend, Ind., for burial. Vice-President Marshall, appointed twelve senators, including Kenyon of Iowa to act as a guard of honor at the funeral. Speaker Clark appointed the thirteen Indiana representatives and several others to attend for the house.

During his illness, Senator Shively was visited several times by President Wilson who regarded him as a warm personal friend. Tonight the president sent a letter of condolence to Mrs. Shively.

To Hold Funeral Saturday.

South Bend, Ind., Mar. 14.—A telegram received here tonight from Aaron Shively brother of Senator Shively, said that the funeral of the senator who died in Washington late today will be held here at two o'clock Saturday afternoon.

CUMMINS IS G. O. P. CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT IN MINNESOTA VOTE

ST. PAUL, March 14.—First scattering returns from today's presidential preference primary in Minnesota indicated Albert B. Cummins, U. S. senator from Iowa, had been declared the Republican choice for the presidential nomination over Henry D. Estabrook of New York and William Grant Webster of Chicago.

With the exception of a few counties where factional fights in the Democratic party had added interest to the delegates contest the vote throughout the state was light. Woodrow Wilson was unopposed for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ballot.

Neither Eugene N. Foss, former governor of Massachusetts nor William Sulzer, former governor of New York, had a decided advantage in the first returns on their contest for the prohibition nomination for president. Progressives, whose delegate candidates were unopposed, had no presidential candidate in the field.

BOARD TO REVIEW PAY ROLLS OF SCHOOL FOR DEAF AND HOSPITAL

According to Dr. George Zellars, state alienist, a monthly saving of $1,250 will be effected by the changes at Elgin. At the Elgin hospital two acting assistant physicians were certified as internes. As physicians they were paid $100 a month each. As internes their salary is $50 a month each.

GERMAN INFANTRY RENEWS ATTACKS

Heavy Fighting Takes Place Northwest of Verdun

TEUTONS AGGRESSORS

French Claim Attacks Are Repulsed Except Between Bethincourt and Le Mort Homme

RUSS STILL HARRASS TURKS

Extremely heavy infantry fighting has taken place northwest of Verdun and on the outskirts of the Bois des Buttes to the north of the Aisne, with the Germans in both regions the aggressors. Elsewhere along the line artillery duels of great proportions are underway.

In the sector between Bethincourt and Cumieres, northwest of Verdun, the intense artillery bombardment of the Germans was followed by an infantry attack but over the entire front of three miles it was repulsed by the French with serious losses, except between Bethincourt and Le Mort Homme, where the Germans gained a footing at two points in the French trenches.

The Germans three times to the north of the Aisne, threw their troops against the French positions northwest of the Bois des Buttes, but none of the attacks proved successful.

In the forest of Argonne the French guns effectively shelled German positions. North and east of Verdun the artillery duels continue. To the north of St. Mihiel in Lorraine and in the Vosges mountains the guns of both sides have been active. A large number of flights in the air have taken place around Verdun. In these four German aircraft have been brought down. French aviators have again bombarded the station of Brulles, behind the German lines north of Verdun.

The British evidently are breaking up the opposition of the Siouze tribesmen, lead by Turkish officers in western Egypt.

An official report received from Major General Peyton, commander of the British forces says the occupation of Sollum on the Egyptian-Tripoli frontier is imminent, that the Shiek Haroun has surrendered and is in the British camp.

The Russians are still harassing the Turks on the Caucasus front and have made further progress against the Teutons in East Galicia. They entered German trenches in the region of Riga filled the occupants and returned to their own positions without suffering any losses.

The Italians are keeping up their strong infantry offensive begun several days ago on the Isonzo front. Especially fierce have been the attacks around San Martino. Here, Rome says, the Italians captured Dante Del Crovillo, the pivot in the Austrian defenses and in the same region stormed two other places and seized Austrian trenches.

ROADS MUST DISTRIBUTE CARS IN PROPORTION TO MINES' NEEDS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 14.—Railroads in Illinois must distribute cars to coal mines in proportion to the various mines' immediate needs, as the result of a ruling of the public utilities commission made public today.

The ruling was the result of complaints by several Springfield coal mines that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was distributing coal cars in accordance with a rating established on the highest average daily shipments of any month in the last twelve over the Baltimore and Ohio line, regardless of coal shipped over other lines.

City Has Low Bonded Debt.

The total bonded indebtedness of the city of Jacksonville is now less than $80,000 and the possible bonded indebtedness is in excess of $200,000. Financially Jacksonville is in a condition far ahead of many cities of the size in this state, but the time is at hand for the expenditure of money for the betterment of the light, water and fire departments. The figures show that the proposed investments will pay for themselves in the course of twenty years and meanwhile that the public will have the benefit. A bond issue is proposed for these betterments and represents the only way by which they can be obtained.

Public Improvements Help Business.

As one speaker at the chamber of commerce directors' meeting Tuesday night said: "If the people vote bonds of $100,000 to be expended for various improvements in the city property, and if the work of paving the three streets which need it so badly is pushed along, this will be a busy and progressive year for Jacksonville." The speaker continued by saying that when money is being expended wisely for public betterments that general business conditions take on a better tone and it is much easier at such a time to create interest in public organizations and in any other matters which concern the welfare of the city as a whole. It is a true saying and one which has been proven by the records, that when permanent public improvements are in progress, that everybody is better off.

From School Teacher to Senator.

The death of Senator Benjamin Franklin Shively at Washington yesterday removes from public life another man who arose to prominence thru his own ability and effort. Senator Shively had been prominent in the public life of Indiana since 1884, when he was first elected to congress. He served in the lower house four or five terms and was elected to the senate in 1909. In 1914 he was re-elected and to him belongs the honor of being the first senator in Indiana to receive his election by the direct vote of the people.

Like so many men who have achieved positions of importance and responsibility in this country, Senator Shively began his career after finishing school, as a teacher. Step by step he advanced without other influence to aid him than his native ability and willingness to work. A marked interest in education.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

SPRING AT HAND.

Old Winter's on the downward grade, he soon will cease to blow; so burnish up the good old spade, and grind the trusty hoe; O grind the trusty hoe, my friends, and make it gleam like glass, for when the stormy winter ends we plant our garden sash, and sing to beat the chimes, chimes, my boys, among the swaying trees, and while they raise their cheerful noise, we'll plant our beans and peas. The Frost King soon will lose his grip, the frozen brooks run free, and lambs and colts and calves will skip around in frantic glee; they'll skip in frantic glee, my dears, for all young things are brash; and when the snowdrift disappears, we'll sow our succotash.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the grandparents and interment was made in White Hall cemetery.

HERMAN'S GREAT OPENING WILL TAKE PLACE THURSDAY, MARCH 16th. MUSIC ALL DAY AND EVENING. EVERYBODY WELCOME. MILLINERY AND READY TO WEAR GARMENTS.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

March 15, 1730—The French governor of Louisiana expressed his confidence in the friendship of the Illinois Indians, whom he wished to keep armed to help the French against hostile tribes.

tional affairs characterized his life, and in a great many ways Senator Shively was a valuable public servant, and his life had about it many things to inspire the admiration of the country at large.

Hot After Villa.

Let us hope that the enthusiasm which Carranza and his associates are now manifesting for the capture of Villa before assistance can be given by the American forces continues. What American people want is to have Villa and his bandit followers captured and put to death, and if this can be done without the shedding of blood of U. S. soldiers, well and good. Without the announced support of the U. S. Carranza seemed powerless, and the new condition of affairs may have given him and his associates new courage, together with something more of prestige in the eyes of his countrymen. Yet there are many who feel that the effect will be the opposite on the Mexican people. At any rate, search for Villa is under way and will be carried on to a successful conclusion either by Mexicans or U. S. soldiers, or both.

LITTLE CORN GRADES BETTER THAN NUMBER FOUR AT ELEVATORS

Grain Reports Show This is a General Condition—Higher Levels for Wheat and Corn Both Expected—Report Just Received on Shipment Made Three Months Since.

As has been true for a number of weeks, on account of road conditions very little grain is moving to Morgan county elevators. The price offered for corn now is 64c to 65c. Practically all corn is purchased to grade No. 4, as there is little use of buying any better grade for practically none of the corn which has been received has been better than No. 4. It is interesting to note the detailed Chicago market reports, which show that large quantities of corn grade 5 and 6, and still a great many other cars pass as "sample," which means at a lower price level of from 20 to 24c. The early frost of last fall and the continued stormy weather which prevented corn from being shucked and put into cribs, are responsible for the corn condition.

Because of the demand for good corn, predictions are freely made that a steady advance in prices will come a little later on and those who have studied the situation would not be at all surprised to see a 90c mark in May. There is really very little good corn in the country by comparison with the supply of many previous years. Elevators are now paying from $1 to $1.05 for wheat, depending upon the quality. Reports as to the condition of winter wheat vary but the general belief is that the crop has generally been damaged severely by the winter weather and that the acreage in good condition will be below average about forty per cent. If this is a proven fact a little later on a steady increase in the price of wheat is certain to come.

The delays incident in shipment were indicated yesterday by the return on a car of corn received by H. A. Furry, manager of the Joy Prairie elevator. The car in question was consigned to a Baltimore firm more than ninety days ago, and it took all of the intervening time to have the corn delivered and the return made. Such shipments of corn were made to the east and there were such delays in getting the cargoes transferred to ships that cars were held on side tracks for two months and more in some instances in the vicinity of Baltimore.

MRS. MARY G. BRADLEY DIED AT HOME AT CITRONELLE, ALABAMA

Deceased Was Member of One of Oldest Morgan County Families—Burial Will be in Cemetery Here—Other Deaths.

Bradley.

Mrs. E. P. Kirby received Tuesday morning a telegram announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Bradley at Citronelle, Alabama, Monday at 10:35.

Mrs. Bradley was the daughter of Rev. Wm. G. Gallaher, long a resident of Pisgah and first pastor of the Pisgah Presbyterian church which he served 35 years and was finally relieved at his urgent request and reluctantly by the members. His place was filled for some time by Prof. Sanders of this city. The family removed to Jacksonville in 1857 and occupied a residence on Grove street, a grey brick house, at the time the first building east of the property now occupied by the Old People's Home. Mr. Gallaher conducted a business of cattle feeding and real estate for many years before his death and was a man who stood very high in the community.

Mrs. Bradley was a graduate of the Jacksonville Female Academy of the class of 1856 and had for classmates Miss Mary E. Harlan, afterward Mrs. Burr, and Miss Mary E. Tyler, three named Mary E. She was one of the charter members of Westminster church and was identified with many good enterprises. She was married about 1879 to Edward W. Bradley and occupied a home on South Diamond street beyond the city limits almost at Greenwood avenue.

Mrs. Bradley's husband was a native of England and died not many years after their marriage. She is survived by a son, Edward G. Bradley of Citronelle, Alabama, sister, Sarah, Mrs. Frances E. Riddle, Lucinda, Mrs. E. P. Kirby, both of this city; Hannah, Mrs. John Dodd of Greenwood, Mo. Nephews and nieces Andrew Russel, Thomas Russel, Mary Russel, Elizabeth Russel, Margaret Russel, Catharine Russel and Isabel Russel, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Russel; James G. Capps, Wm. T. Capps and Mrs. Sarah E. Tingle, children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Capps; and one cousin, Miss Harriet K. Phillips of this city.

She had three brothers: Thomas, who died when fifteen years of age, James A., who died in 1862 while a soldier in the civil war, and William an attorney who died in 1870. He was an attorney, member of the firm of Morrison, Whitlock & Gallaher. He married Miss Hattie Hahn of Philadelphia and left one son who died when quite young so that there is no male descendant bearing the name of Gallaher.

The remains are expected here Thursday at five p. m. and at four p. m. Friday brief services will be held at the residence of Judge E. P. Kirby, after which interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Hamilton.

Charles Hamilton died recently at his home in Carlville. He was a native of London county, Virginia, but was true to the union and enlisted in this city in Co. D, 85th Ill. Infantry and served three years and two months. After his discharge he settled in Carlville which has since been his home.

Baumann.

John M. Baumann, aged 45 years, died Monday night at 11:45 o'clock at his residence, 405 North Fayette street, after a ten days illness of pneumonia. A brief notice of the death appeared in Tuesday morning's Journal.

Go now to a mirror and examine your mouth? Do your gums look "rinsed out," shrunken? Do you see a jagged appearance in the gum-line?

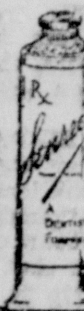

If so, see your dentist. He will tell you that you have pyorrhea, and that to save your teeth you will have to fight this dread disease at once.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senecro Tooth Paste. Senecro combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senecro does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senecro alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senecro treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senecro of your druggist today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senecro Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BOXELL FAMILY WILL MOVE TO INDIANA HOME

Will Start Tea and Coffee Store in Marion—Expect to Establish Other Similar Enterprises.

Many friends of D. E. Boxell and members of his family will regret to know that they are very soon to leave Jacksonville. In fact, they are now engaged in packing their household goods for shipment to Marion, Ind., where the Boxell Tea & Coffee House is soon to be opened. The store will be operated on a larger scale than the one which Boxell & Sons had here, and recently sold, and the lines handled will be more extensive. With recent and still earlier experience in mercantile lines, and with ample financial backing, it is Mr. Boxell's expectation with his sons, Walton and Max, to establish a number of stores of the same kind in different cities. Marion is a city of 20,000, with a large industrial population, as there are so many manufacturing plants there.

Mr. Boxell's boyhood home was within twelve miles of that city and he is thoroughly familiar with the locality and acquainted with many of the people. He has given up the traveling position he had with a well known hardware house and will devote all of his time to the new business.

During their ten years' residence in Jacksonville Mr. and Mrs. Boxell have acquired a very high place in the estimation of the people. Their three sons, Walton, Max and Dale, have also an established good name, and it will be a cause for regret that the family is to leave this city for new home in Indiana. Nevertheless, good wishes for their happiness and extended business prosperity will accompany them.

FUNERALS

Jumper.

The funeral of the late Samuel Jumper took place at Hebron M. E. church Tuesday morning in the presence of a large audience gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to a citizen whom all who knew honored while he was living. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Charles H. Davis who took for his text Job 5:26, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn that cometh in his season."

The reverend speaker paid a just tribute to the deceased who was a faithful soldier in the civil war, a soldier in the ranks of his Heavenly Commander having been a local preacher for a good many years of his life and a faithful member of the church all his mature years. He was an example to the present generation in his devotion to the right and tried to honor his Master in all things.

The music was in charge of the church choir who sang three hymns: "While Our Hearts are Bleeding," "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" and "Shall We Meet Beyond the river?"

At the close of the services the procession started for the city as interment was to be in Jacksonville cemetery. At the latter place they were met by veterans Edna Scott, John Minter, Leurgus Goheen, John E. Wright, P. E. McDougall, Hassell Hopper, Benjamin Wood and W. J. Moore. Brief G. A. R. services were performed and the body was consigned to its last resting place. The bearers were B. A. Johnson, Joseph Lewis, W. P. Richardson, R. L. Shafer, Henry Lamkuehler and W. H. Ward.

The flowers were in charge of Misses Ina Swain, Laura Fox, Mary Ward and Emma Johnson.

Among those present were Wm. Morris and J. A. Jumper, sons of the deceased; Wm. P. Jumper of Iowa, James Jumper of Chicago, John Jumper and daughter, Mrs. Josie Lowe of Hermess, Ill.; Gordon Jumper, Waltonville, Ill.; all except the lady, nephews of the deceased; others were Louis, Wm. and Mary Ward of Sinclair; Mrs. Marie Ward, Sinclair; Joseph Lewis, Jordanville;

"I am pleased to receive a reply of this character from the government of the United States. It will relieve the very delicate situation that has developed owing to the Columbus affair. I will immediately transmit this reply to this courteous note expressing appreciation of same. In this event I shall deliver it to you immediately for transmittal to the government of the United States."

Creates Favorable Impression.
"It was plainly evident that the reply created a most favorable impression."

Official reports from Monterey, Matamoros and other points said good order prevailed and conditions were unchanged, altho the people had full knowledge of what had transpired at Columbus, and the plans of the American government dealing with Villa. From the west coast navy advices said the people of the Mexican towns appeared undisturbed by reports that American troops were to move across the border. Meanwhile the censorship over movements on the order was drawn tighter.

In announcing General Funston's decision that no more than four correspondents could accompany the troops, Secretary Baker made it plain that it was no disposition to limit publicity as to what was done beyond the border. Only the military aspects of the matter were considered he said, the problem of providing suitable accommodations was a comparatively small force. It is understood General Pershing, who will lead the expedition, fixed the number of correspondents to go along.

MAIN FORCE MAY NOT START FOR THREE DAYS

General Funston sent orders to General Pershing to seize the telegraph office at Columbus, N. M., guard telephone wires leading out of the town and closely watch all automobile and other routes to telegraph stations in nearby towns. After stating late this afternoon that no troops had yet crossed the border, General Funston also instituted a close censorship on all proceedings with Fort Sam Houston.

It was indicated that the next announcement from Southern department would come only with the actual start of the expeditionary force into Mexico.

An additional factor in the settling down of silence on the progress of events on the border was the action of the Mexican consul general here in wiring Mexican consul officials in the border states of Texas and New Mexico not to do or say anything that might complicate the delicate situation.

May Establish Martial Law
At Fort Sam Houston it was pointed out that if present measures did not put a stop to the leakage of important border news at Columbus, it might be necessary to establish martial law.

The transfer of General Pershing from El Paso to Columbus has necessitated another important assignment. Brigadier General George Bell, Jr., commander of the fifth brigade with headquarters at San Antonio, was ordered by General Funston today to proceed to El Paso and assume command of troops there. General Funston said that the growing importance of the assignment of an officer of General Bell's rank to take charge of them.

The Twenty-third Infantry enroute from Galveston, passed thru San Antonio today on its way to the base of operations.

Many Americans are arriving in San Antonio on their way north after forsaking their occupations in Mexico.

ENCOUNTER WITH BURGLAR.
Miss Evaline Petesh of Litterberry returned Monday night from Bloomington, where she visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Petesh. A burglar entered the Petesh home several nights since and made his getaway with a watch and other valuables. Miss Petesh and her brother were out for the evening and returning, saw at once that something in the house was wrong. The burglar, on being discovered, broke a kitchen window with a flat iron and made good his escape.

IN PEORIA HOSPITAL.
Mrs. Matilda Howell, a sister of James Cruise of this city, is very ill at a hospital in Peoria and her recovery is doubtful. J. H. Juniper of Chicago, a son of Mrs. Howell, was in Jacksonville Tuesday looking after business matters.

TALK AT LIBRARY.
Miss Mary Upham spoke to an appreciative audience Tuesday evening in the lecture room at the public library on the photographic art exhibit, on display at the library this week.

HENRY SURRETT DIED

SUDDENLY.
Henry Surrett dropped dead at the power house in the McKee Drainage district at Chambersburg Monday morning. The deceased was about fifty years old and was well known in this county. It is supposed that heart disease was the cause of his sudden going.

Miss Elizabeth Zellar of Alexander, a student at Normal university, is making a vacation visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zellar.

PEOPLE OF FRANCE SEE CERTAIN VICTORY

AMERICAN VISITOR SAYS SPIRIT OF NATION IS STRONG.

Miss Ernestine Jastremski, formerly a teacher at school for deaf, returns from stay in Southern France and Paris—Fears of Fellow Voyagers.

Sure of victory and confident that time will see the total undoing of the German armies, the people of France look upon the war with strong spirit and with courage unabated, says Miss Ernestine Jastremski, who arrived in America last week and who is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Miss Hettie I. Patterson at Illinois School for the Deaf, where Miss Jastremski was formerly a teacher. Miss Jastremski is enroute to her home in Louisiana.

Miss Jastremski made most of her stay in France near her ancestral home in the Pyrenees. On the rocky slopes of these mountains she was well removed from the scene of war but on the return, she was for a time in the French capital. Crossing the ocean, she conversed with refugees and heard the story of Frenchmen who had been held prisoner in German hands.

Fear of German Raiders.
The voyage from Bordeaux to New York was made on the liner "Chicago" and was without mishap. No passenger felt secure, however, and the fact that each person on the boat was given a numbered card with directions for finding the proper life boat added nothing to the peace of mind of the travelers. Disquietude was heightened when the wireless told of a passenger vessel sunk by a German raider, but two hundred miles from the course of the Chicago.

For continuation of the war until the bitter end, French opinion is firm, says Miss Jastremski. Surrender or compromise would not be fair to the names of those who have died, cries the nation. In France there is little actual want and in Paris there is little evidence of war aside from the sight of marching soldiers in the streets.

The Verdun Campaign.
The capture of Paris is not feared in France. The fear of German aggression against Verdun is tempered by the belief that the present German advance is political. The movement against Verdun was just beginning when Miss Jastremski sailed and in Paris the opinion prevailed that it was German dissatisfaction at home which was in large measure responsible for the campaign.

An Old Man's Plight.
On the voyage home Miss Jastremski heard stories of hardships undergone in German territory. "Fear submarines? Never, when we have so long listened to the flight of shells and heard the mitrailleuse spit fire above our heads?" said a French woman, who had been visiting in the east of France and had been caught in the zone of fire by a German advance.

An old man, for several years resident in America, returned to his native land, purchased on the river Meuse a small estate, maintained scrupulous care that nothing be done to offend the investing German army. Placed under arrest, he was marched far afoot, hauled miles in a cattle car, without food, and only after weeks of vicissitude did he make his escape to France and back to America.

In southern France, Miss Jastremski was not among strangers. Her father was born in Carbone, in the department of Haute-Garonne, and relatives of his are living there. In Caset d'Aleu, the mountain village where a long visit was made, Miss Jastremski had residence in a house more than six hundred years old and saw at its best what yet remains of mediaeval France.

SHINING EXAMPLES.

"Men should try to set good examples to growing boys," said the landlady, "and for that reason, if for no other, they should throw away their pipes and tobacco."

"Growing boys hate shining examples," observed the star boarder. "If a boy goes wrong, and follows the path which leads to the gallows or Congress, you may be sure that he has been driven to evil courses by shining examples. Some molly-coddle has been held up to view as a perfect specimen of human nature, until the boy's proud spirit rebelled, and he ran amuck."

"Human nature never changes, my dear Mrs. Jiggers. Change and decay in all other things we see but human nature is doing business at the old stand, the same yesterday, today and forever."

"I haven't my 'Who's Who' with me, so I can't say just when and where Aristides lived, but he cashed in a long time ago, before the days of Julius Caesar. He was the original shining example. He was a man without a blemish. He was so fair and impartial that he was called 'The Just.' Such a man should have been beloved and admired. But he made the people weary. He gave them perpendicular pains in their collar bones. So it happened that when Aristides ran for justice of the peace, he supposed he would be triumphantly elected."

"He informed his friends in confidence that the other fellows wouldn't have a look in, and the milksop element agreed with him. But the horny-handed toilers, the bone and sinew of the land, had it in for Hon. Aristides. For years they had been reminded, every time they made a bad break, that Aristides wouldn't be guilty of such coarse work. If a husband didn't hand his wages over to his wife on Saturday night, she would say she wished she had married Aristides. Boys who ran away from school to see the ball games were reminded that Aristides never played truant.

"It is easy to understand why Aristides was cordially hated and nobody can read the result of the election in which he figured, without experiencing a glow of gratitude and happiness. The old man was the worst kind of an also ran, and all the rest of his life he had a taste in his mouth that reminded him of a dodo's nest."

"I would not be guilty of doing anything that might be considered an example to growing boys. I was a growing boy once myself, and I know how they feel about such things."

"My attention was constantly called, when I was young, to a neighbor boy who was painfully honest. Upon one occasion he walked seventeen miles to return a penny that had been paid to him by mistake. I heard so much about that glittering youth that I learned to detest all forms of honesty, and I take a pardonable pride in saying that I have never paid a debt when paying could be avoided."

"So please pass the stewed apricots, Mrs. Jiggers."

FIRE AT DAN EDWARDS.

The fire department was called to the residence of Dan Edwards, 623 East College street, about 8:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. Soot in a chimney had caught fire and set fire to the wall paper over a fire hole. A picture hanging near the fire hole was scorched but no other damage was done. The blaze was extinguished without the aid of the department.

Misses Anna and Cena Williams of the Jacksonville State hospital have returned from a visit with their sister, Mrs. Martha Southwell of Winchester.

POWDER TOWN ATTRACTS WORKERS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 14.—Powder Town, the village which is springing up six miles east of the state capital under the stimulus of the gold of the Western Cartridge company is attracting workers from all parts of the country.

Fifty company buildings are about completed and 28 others are to be erected immediately. The manufacture of acids used in powder making has begun at the plant, and the managers say it is but a question of weeks before they will be turning out tons of powder.

There are 350 acres in the tract owned by the company and options are held on a similar tract adjoining it. About 600 men are employed at the plant now. A special force of police has been employed and these men, deputy sheriffs of Sangamon county have been armed with army rifles and big automatic pistols.

COUNTY FAIRS IN STATE PAID

$305,371.43 IN PREMIUMS IN 1915

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 14.—Seventy seven county fairs held in Illinois in 1915 paid in premiums $305,371.43, according to figures compiled by the state board of agriculture. Speed events took $136,788.83 of this sum and the rest was given for prize stock and farm produce.

"The foot and mouth plague resulted in 3 county fairs being called off," said Secretary Davidson of the state board of agriculture. "Every dollar paid out by these fairs helped to educate and stimulate the population of the state to farm better, and to live better, by adopting improved methods of production and distribution, of manufacturing, of soil conservation by crop rotation, and on the whole to lead happier lives by observing and learning the ways of others."

GOVERNMENT PROSECUTES CEMENT PROMOTERS

Chicago, March 14.—The government attorneys are ready to proceed today with the trial of five Chicago men who are charged with misuse of the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud, in connection with the floating of the Empire Cement Co. The accused men are A. T. Kirk, H. W. Williams, A. H. Marshall, A. G. Marshall and J. T. Best. The trial is set for today, and promises to be an interesting one.

The men who are accused by the postoffice inspectors are said to have been officials of, and to have promoted, the cement company which was incorporated five years ago and capitalized at a million dollars. For several months after the incorporation, general offices were maintained in Cincinnati. While there, it is said, some of the preferred stock of the company was sold to local contractors and cement dealers, the arrangement being, it is alleged, that purchasers of stock were to receive free consignments of cement.

It is said that more than $200,000 worth of this preferred stock was sold to contractors and cement dealers in the Middle West. The government charges that there was no intention on the part of the promoters to operate a cement plant at Portsmouth, O., as claimed in their circulars, and that they had no intention of doing more than to sell the stock.

EVANGELIST FACES

SLANDER SUITS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 14.—The four slander suits of $50,000 each brought against Dr. Henry W. Stough, the evangelist, as the result of his utterances during campaign here in 1914, will be heard at the term of court which begins here today. The plaintiffs in the order in which they will be called are: W. J. Cullen, Director of Public Safety; Harry W. Jacobs, manager of the Pennsylvania Central Brewing Co.; Max Friedlander, County Assessor and wholesale liquor dealer; and John Fierro, alderman and city magistrate.

Dr. Stough has postponed his campaign at Jacksonville, Fla., to fight the slander cases. His attorneys appealed to court last summer, after three arbitrators had made an award of $2700.00 in favor of Cullen.

MET IN ALASKA:

WED IN NEW YORK

New York, Mar. 14.—A romantic wedding is set for today in New York when Miss Willa H. Bradford, a school teacher of this city, becomes the bride of Christopher W. Johnson, a wealthy St. Louis manufacturer who is a member of the St. Louis board of education. The couple first met in Alaska last summer, while each was touring that remote corner of the country. Their mutual interest in educational matters made them boon companions, and on their return they kept up a correspondence. Last January Mr. Johnson made a trip to New York for a dinner in commemoration of the pleasant days he and Miss Bradford spent together in Alaska. An engagement was the result.

Johnson is a widower. His first wife died several years ago, and since then he has devoted himself to business. Suffering from a nervous exhaustion last summer, he was advised to go to Alaska. He found health and strength, and a new bride who is interested in the things he likes. Johnson, it is said, arrived in St. Louis 32 years ago with $3.50 in his pocket, and sought a position with a mill on the site where his offices now stand.

Miss Bradford, the bride, has taught school in New York for thirteen years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford of Meadowbrook, N. Y.

WILL CELEBRATE ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF SOCIAL PROGRESS

State Charities Commission Makes Plans for Anniversary—Question Will be Thoroughly Considered at Next State Conference.

One hundred years of social progress in Illinois will be celebrated on an elaborate scale during 1918 when this state will observe its centenary.

Already steps have been taken to insure to the social and charitable institutions and agencies of our state their proper place in the general scheme of state wide celebration.

What form this will take has not been determined. One idea is that a ten days' congress of representatives of every institution and agency of charity, social service and correction shall be held either in Chicago or Springfield, supplemented by a great exhibit which will show how the state's service in care of its dependents and defectives had developed.

The State Charities Commission has taken the initiative in the matter. The subject was presented recently to a large audience of social workers in Chicago. At the next State Conference of Charities which will be held in Alton, the question will be given thoro consideration. Another plan is to invite the National Conference of Charities to meet in Chicago during the summer of 1918. If this is decided upon, the preliminary steps will be taken at the meeting of the National Conference in Indianapolis in May of this year.

It is believed that no aspect of life in Illinois has received more attention or made greater changes than that dealing with the social welfare of its people.

This state has been the leader in numerous movements which have spread over the entire country. It originated the juvenile court. It has the first municipal court, organized for social work. It has the first courts supplied with laboratories to study offenders or dependents arrayed before them.

No state has made greater strides in the public care of its insane and feeble minded. Its laws relative to the employment of women and children were among the pioneers.

All these things should be shown not only as a matter of state pride, but as an incentive and inspiration for the future. Such a celebration would bring together in a co-operative movement hundreds who otherwise would never be brought into contact with each other.

U. S. WAR VETERANS WILL BE ADMITTED FREE TO STATE FAIR

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 14.—All United States war veterans will be admitted free to the Illinois State fair in the future, according to an announcement by the state board of agriculture.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.

It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin will give you a hundred dollars worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night; it's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world. Adv.

I have ten in family and for years I've used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it never fails."

HAIR COMING OUT?

Landru causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair root's shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.—Adv.

GOATS' MILK FOR COUGHS

"Go to the Hills and drink goats' milk" was the prescription given by Hippocrates more than 2000 years ago for coughs, colds and bronchitis, but nowadays our local druggist, Lee P. Alcott, has a non-secret constitutional remedy just as certain which can be taken right at home. It is Vinol—composed of the healing, medicinal extracts of cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron for the blood and the nourishing properties of beef peptone. It goes to the seat of the trouble, removes the cough and cures the cold. Vinol is a very reliable preparation.—Adv.

The clerk cashed the check, giving the balance in money. He then went to Sykes and Fanning's and gave another check for $10.00, getting $6.00 change. The boy's father telephoned to the officers here to arrest the boy and send him home. But thru some misunderstanding this was not carried out and the boy caught the 11:15 and left for St. Louis. Mr. Taylor came in at 2:45 and consulting Lowenstein's and Sykes & Fanning, left for St. Louis to hunt the boy. Wednesday Mr. Taylor came back, not having located his son and not in disposition to make the checks good.

NAPLES.

Mr. Placke from near Oxville, was in town on business this morning. John Merriman was in town on business and reports the roads getting much better.

John Gillman and Clarence McCaleb were dragging the roads, each with a steel drag and four horses. This wonderfully improved the highways.

The river is still steadily falling at the rate of about two inches every twenty four hours. Most of the water is out of the low places and ponds in town and bottom except a few of the largest lakes.

Our old friend, John Linkins, was waiting on our merchants recently.

Mr. Babb, the Cadillac auto agent from Jacksonville, was here recently. He has a fine car and the company has a fine agent in Mr. Babb.

Harry G. Pine has just reported selling seventy eight plow tractors in North Carolina and Georgia for the Avery people of Peoria. He says when he sells one hundred he will visit his wife in Peoria.

Carl M. Ritter gave an entertainment last night, proceeds to our church.

Very little sickness here now of any kind.

W. G. Pine was called to Winchester on business this morning.

Harvey Green and Gene Simpson who are running the two grain elevators are getting in some nice wheat and corn; both good firms and pay spot cash for every bushel.

In the past three bright days we see many rubbish fires started, and roosters on the fence trying to out-crow their neighbors. A good omen of spring near.

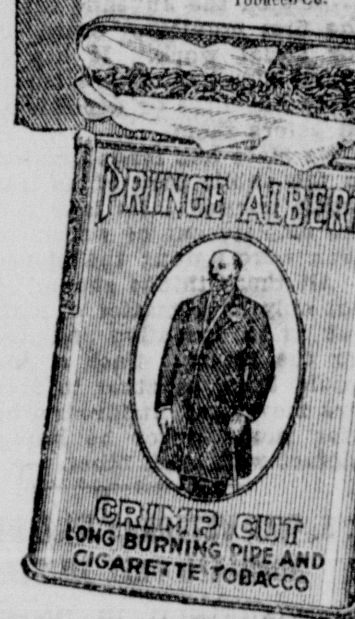

The boats now make regular trips to Beards town and Peoria. Our minister, Bro. Jupin is a good one. Born in old Kentucky and not ashamed or afraid to preach the truth anywhere.

WHEAT SHOWS CONSIDERABLE STRENGTH ATTENDS DURING SESSION

Closing Prices, However, Are Unsettled at 1/4 Off to 1/2 of a Cent Up—Corn Is Unsettled—Oats Prove Stronger.

Chicago, March 14.—Wheat showed considerable strength at times today owing to the lifting of some of the railroad embargoes on grain shipments to the east. Closing prices, however, were unsettled, 1/4¢ off to 1/2¢ up with May at $1.08 1/2 and July at $1.07 1/2.

Corn finished a shade to 1/2¢ down with a gain of 1/2¢ and provisions at 20 to 25¢ decline.

Word that three of the principal eastern roads had made definite progress toward restoring normal conditions where car blockades had been in force led to an immediate display of confidence on the part of bulls in wheat. During the period of bullish enthusiasm, numerous unfavorable crop reports were received from the domestic winter wheat belt especially from Missouri, Illinois and Nebraska, but exporters took the position that the foreign trade as a rule was interested only in spring wheat.

Corn like wheat felt the bullish effect of lifting of eastern embargoes. On the upturn, however, leading longs indulged in profit-taking. Besides, rains in Argentina had some bearish influence and so too did labor troubles at Argo, Ill.

Oats proved relatively stronger than other cereals. It was said the bulk of the stock here would be shipped east as soon as cars would be obtained.

Provisions gave way under heavy liquidating sales. Yesterday's largest buyers were the leading sellers today. Shipping demand both foreign and domestic, appeared to have become restricted.

CHICAGO MARKETS.*Chicago Livestock Market.

Chicago, March 13.—Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., U. S. Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports the estimated receipts for Monday, March 13, 1916:

14,000 cattle.
53,000 hogs.
17,000 sheep.

With an advance in the market of 25 to 40¢ last week the popular estimates for today were 17,000 cattle, when the posted run was 14,000. It was a keen disappointment to the buying side of the trade. While packers fought the advance vigorously, it failed to work and early in the market session buyers were free bidders at a general advance of 10¢ and many of the medium to good cattle selling from $8.25 to $9.50 gained 10 to 15¢. The club was still wedged and with success to make the top below 10¢, but only missed the market by 5¢ a hundred. Handy and medium cattle mainly $8.40 to $9.50. 19 prime 1659 at $9.35; 39 prime 1266 at $9.55. Around 25 car loads different weights, $9.50 to $9.75. Bulk of the right good corn fed, $9.00 to $9.45. The stuff that went down to 7¢ and below were to common to get feeder competition. A drove that made 9¢ today were mates to $8.25 ones three weeks ago. Yard trades carried over 1,000 from last week and bulk were stockers and feeders, and yard traders for these classes were not as gay bidders as were the buyers for beef cattle.

Native beef cattle quotations:

Inferior to rough steers, $6.00 to $6.75.

Common to plain steers, $6.75 to $7.25.

Plain to decent warmed ups, $7.40 to $7.90.

Medium to good handy short feds, $8.00 to $8.50.

Good to choice corn feds, $8.60 to $9.50.

Choice to prime heavy beefs, $9.50 to $9.95.

Common to fair yearlings, $7.10 to $8.40.

Good to prime yearlings, $8.50 to $9.75.

She stock up to highest time of the year. Bulk 10 to 13¢ higher. Weak tone in the late market. Canners were firm. Bulls 10 to 15¢ better. Calves weak.

Run of feeders of plain quality:

Fat cows, $5.25 to $8.00.

Heifers, $5.25 to $8.75.

Prime at $9.00 to $9.25.

Bulls, $5.50 to $7.85.

Canners and cutters, $4.00 to $5.00.

Common heavy calves to good vealers, $4.50 to $10.00.

Choice to prime vealers, $10.25 to $11.00.

Inferior stockers to good feeders, $6.00 to $7.50.

Choice to prime, $6.00 to $7.50.

Light to good weights, $7.65 to $8.00.

Hogs opened steady with best time Saturday. Top $10.13 1/2. Late market 10¢ lower. Big packers do but little until noon. General quality good.

Mixed packing, $9.45 to $9.75.

Medium and butchers, $9.77 1/2 to $9.87 1/2.

Poor to good heavy packing grades, $9.50 to $9.87 1/2.

Rough heavy packing, $9.15 to $9.45.

Light weights, $9.40 to $9.75.

GREATER STRENGTH, BREADTH AND ACTIVITY ATTENDS MARKET

Movement Begins at the Opening and Continues Until the Final Hour, When Some Specialties Yield Fractions.

New York, March 14.—Greater strength, breadth and activity attended today's market, dealings amounting to 1,100,000 shares or a record for the year to date. The movement began at the opening and continued until the final hour when some specialties, notably Crucible Steel, yielded fractions.

A significant feature was the obvious revival of public interest seemingly due to encouraging domestic developments which nullified adverse factors resulting from Mexican and European conditions.

All important branches of commerce and industry as well as railroad earnings are proceeding at an almost unprecedented rate of activity while prices of most products and commodities are steadily mounting. Evidently these factors, together with record crops and easy money again are finding reflection in a renewed demand for securities. War shares and industrial and equipment issues coming within that category were today's most prominent features. American Locomotive, Crucible Steel and Westinghouse Electric leading that division with gains of two to almost five points.

United States Steel assumed its old place as active leader with a total of 140,000 shares, or about 15 per cent of the day's turn over at an extreme gain of 1 1/2 to 8 1/2¢. Bethlehem Steel added 25¢ to yesterday's spectacular rise, touching 55.00.

Rails were in excellent demand. Reading's advance of 3 1/2 to 8 1/2¢ presented a record price for that stock since its quotation in dollars on the local board. There were a few backward features, including express and tobacco issues and United States industrial alcohol.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Livestock Market.

Kansas City, March 13.—The late advance on stockers and feeders drew out quite a run last week and about the middle of the week the market broke 15 to 25 cents and closed that way. Total cattle receipts today are 15,000 head, containing a good percentage of stockers and feeders. Many owners who had previously intended to hold their cattle through the grass season are ready to let go on the bulge, hence there will be good supplies right along while prices hold up anywhere near where they are now. Shipments out last week amounted to 11,000 head, about 1,000 more than during same week last year, and total output since the first of the year is 128,000 head, a few thousand more than same period in 1915.

Stock cattle are coming thinner than usual this year and they should make good gains. A Boone county, Missouri, stockman bought 400 head of good 700 lb. stockers at $7.75 last week, which he will rough along till he can put them on blue grass. In the fall he figures he can either put these steers in the feed lot or sell them, whichever prospect looks better. Packers bought Colorado steers today at $8.35, for which feeder buyers bid the same price, a condition that applies to cattle worth $8 to $8.50. Choice Colorado stock steers sold early at $8.50. Colorado feeders $8.15. Bulk of the stock steers $7 and upwards, feeders $7.50 and upwards. Good stock calves sell at $7 to $8.50, including choice white faces. Stock cows $5.75 to $6.50 are plentiful, and selected shorthorn heifers cost $7 to $7.50, choice white faces up to $8. Immature stock hogs are plentiful, but price has followed the advancing market on fat hogs, and selected natives all weights are worth around $10. Feeding lambs are scarce, a few shearers going out at $10 to $10.50.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient's normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by derangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams:

She says:—"Before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with dyspepsia and bearing down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women."—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 31 West 3d Street, New Albany, Ind.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

NOTICE.

Complying with the recent order issued by our City Council, it is necessary that we cancel our contracts for oiling the paved streets during the coming season.

We appreciate the fact that the majority of our business men prefer the oil as a dust layer, but we must submit to the powers that be and use the city water.

We will be delayed a few days because of this order as we will be compelled to make a new canvass and make new contracts. Now join us on the "Water Wagon," because we must keep down the dust.

Mayor Thompson Outlines Plan of Campaign—Senator Sherman's Approval Thereof.

(Political Advertisement.)

On Tuesday, December 7th, Mayor William Hale Thompson issued the following statement inviting the candidates for Republican National Committeeman from Illinois to refer the selection of a National Committeeman to the Republican voters of the State:

To The Republicans of Illinois:— On June 1, 1915, Mr. Roy O. West, of Chicago, the present member of the Republican National Committee from Illinois, in letters to Republican leaders over the state, announced that he is a candidate for reelection as National Committeeman.

On September 22nd, 1915, in a public address at Springfield, Ill., I announced that I would be a candidate for member of the Republican National Committee from Illinois, and gave my reasons for becoming a candidate for that high honor. Since then a number of Republican county organizations throughout the State have endorsed my candidacy.

No other Republican has as yet announced his intention to become a candidate.

The direct primary law of Illinois was enacted in order that the rank and file of the party should have opportunity to express a personal choice for officials who should represent them. That law does not provide for a direct vote on candidates for National Committeeman, that office having been apparently overlooked when the present law was framed. It certainly is as important to elect a national committeeman by direct vote as a member of a county committee.

Under the circumstances, and in order that the people shall rule, the interests of party harmony and popular government would both be served if the selection of a National Committeeman should be referred to the Republicans of this State. This can be done in the following manner:

I will forward to the Secretary of State a petition asking that my name be placed upon the official state ballot as a candidate for delegate at large to the Republican National Convention; and I hereby urge Mr. West and any others who may aspire to the position of National Committeeman to do likewise and so announce themselves.

Then let the vote on the several candidates for delegates to the National Convention be considered as advisory to the State delegation in the matter of their selection of a member of the National Committee, it being understood that the candidate for National Committeeman who receives the highest number of votes for delegates at large shall be considered the choice of the rank and file of the party.

This would in no way take from the delegation the right to make a choice, but merely allow an advisory vote as was done in the nomination of candidates for United States Senator before a law was enacted providing for their direct election by the people.

I agree to accept such a verdict as binding upon me, and will not be a candidate for National Committeeman should any one who has announced himself, or shall announce himself, as a candidate for National Committeeman receive more votes than I receive, and will cheerfully support the choice expressed by the people.

Believing that the Republicans of Illinois would welcome an opportunity to cast a direct vote for the office of Republican National Committeeman, and thereby assist in promoting party harmony in this State, I therefore take this position, in order that the following purposes may thereby be accomplished:

1. That party strife may not endanger the likelihood of a solid delegation from Illinois in the National Convention for Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman for the Republican nomination for President of the United States.

2. That the Republican voters of this State may have an opportunity to record a direct vote upon the position of Republican National Committeeman from Illinois.

3. That after the entire Republican ticket shall have been nominated, complete harmony shall prevail in the Republican Party in this State.

LAWRENCE Y. SHERMAN, ILLINOIS

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C.

December 9, 1915

Hon. Wm. Hale Thompson, Mayor of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Senator Ettelson and I have had a visit this afternoon. I have learned for the first time the proposition to leave the selection of National Committeemen for Illinois to a vote of the people. This is a fair proposal. It cannot well be refused by anyone who believes in settling matters of party choice at a primary. I approve of the offer you have made to those who oppose you. It at the same time is eminently fair from any viewpoint. It certainly is designed to strengthen the Republican Party and relieve many districts from a local contest.

Very truly yours,

L. Y. Sherman

The foregoing proposal was submitted to the Hon. Roy. O. West by Mayor William Hale Thompson nearly three months ago. Up to the present time, however, Mr. Thompson has received no reply from Mr. West regarding it. Mr. Roy O. West who was former Governor Deneen's chief political adviser, stood for a law which compels us to elect County Central Committeemen, Senatorial Committeemen and State Central Committeemen by a direct vote. As the office of National Committeeman is of infinitely greater importance than any of these, Mayor Thompson had, therefore, every reason to expect that Mr. West would promptly and gladly accept his proposal to submit their candidacies to the popular vote, especially when he knew the vote could be taken without a single cent of cost to the taxpayers of Illinois.

DESPITE CONDITION OF WEATHER

Pastor Will Give Third Sermon in Special Series Tonight—Husband and Wife Stand Together in Waters of Baptism Tuesday Night.

"Hell" will be the subject at the First Baptist church tonight. This will be the third of the series of sermons being given this week. The subject Tuesday evening was, "The Devil" and in spite of the bad weather the attendance was very large and the interest unusually keen. At the close of the service, six more professed conversion.

A beautiful baptismal service was witnessed at the opening, when a husband and wife stood in the waters together and were baptized by the pastor. Others are to be baptized tonight at the beginning of the service.

Mr. Allen sang, "His Eye is on the Sparrow," and "Somebody Knows." The audience joined in on the chorus. "Jesus" was the title of the song by Mr. Allen at the close of the sermon.

At the opening of the song service tonight Mrs. Thomas Harber will sing, "His Love For Me," and a special number will be given by the choir.

In speaking of "The Devil" Mr. Stephens said he did not believe in speculating about subjects like Satan and the angels. We must realize that we are living in a practical age. He said that he sought to bring a practical message to practical people. Mr. Stephens spoke first of the personality of the devil and said that there is a tendency to spell the word "devil" without the "d." For three reasons he believed that Satan is a personality. These reasons are biblical, experimental and philosophical. The second point was the power of the devil. The third point was the purpose of the devil and this Mr. Stephens said was to get men and women away from God and that is why he seeks to make church members worldly, and tries to get them to play cards, go to the dances, to the theatres, to the pool rooms, to the saloons and to the streets. The fourth point was the penalty for the devil and that is hell which Christ said was prepared for the Devil and his angels. In closing Mr. Stephens said that the destruction of the Devil is possible for Hebrews, 2-14, says: "Christ died that He might destroy him that had the power of death." That is, the devil. We may be delivered thru faith in Him.

UTILITY COMPANY SECURES
FRANCHISE AT MURRAYVILLE

The Central Illinois Public Service corporation has secured a franchise option for supplying electric current to Murrayville. The franchise was granted by the village council on petition of a majority of the property owners and specifies that the lighting system must be installed by July 1. The corporation has had the franchise for furnishing the light to Murrayville before and citizens were not strongly inclined to grant another. It is hoped, however, that the utility company will push matters at this juncture and complete the installation of the lighting system.

The company already has a transmission line at Waverly and Franklin, and it may be that this line will be connected thru to Murrayville and Roodhouse.

PRELIMINARY CONVENTION WORK
SOON TO BEGIN IN CHICAGO

Committees Will Get Busy with Work in Preparation for Big Republican Gathering in June—The Temporary Chairmanship.

Activities preliminary to the opening in the Coliseum, June 7, of the Republican national convention, are due to get under way in Chicago next Monday.

This was the word Fred W. Upham, chairman of the citizens' committee on the Republican national convention, and a G. O. P. leader in Illinois, has sent out according to the Chicago Post after hearing from Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the G. O. P. national committee. The subcommittee of the national body assigned to look after the convention will meet in Chicago Monday next. Chase S. Osborn, former Governor of Michigan, looks as a formidable contender for the honor of making the keynote speech as temporary chairman.

To Select Chairman.
The national committee delegated to the subcommittee the power to select the temporary chairman. Only two national figures are considered as likely in the choice. Much timidity is at the disposal of the subcommittee, but aversion to some of them has sprung up because they have mixed in with the presidential ambitions of some White House aspirants. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho and Mr. Osborn are ranked as likely figures in the race, as a result of having kept out of these squabbles. If their number is to be augmented, leaders say, the other keynote aspirants must retire from presidential fights.

Mr. Hilles has wired to Mr. Upham that he will be in Chicago Monday morning. He is to be preceded by Secretary James B. Reynolds, who will arrive Sunday and make a preliminary survey of suitable quarters in which to open national headquarters. He will then make his report to the subcommittee when assembled, and before the G. O. P. dignitaries leave Chicago the instructions of the national committee on the opening of national headquarters are to be followed out. These, it is said, will be in the Congress Hotel.

Meetings of the subcommittee also are to be in the Congress Hotel. Others due Sunday are Sergeant at Arms Williams F. Stone and Franklin Murphy, former governor of New Jersey.

Be sure to see "Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party." Lots of fun. Central Christian church, Thursday and Friday nights.

RECRUITS FOR THE ARMY
DURING FORMER WARS

Recruiting for the army is going on and in the event of a real war there would be plenty who would take up arms for their country. An amusing scene took place at the station in this city when a company started for the Cuban war. The ages of the young men ranged from 18 to 22 or 23 and a grey haired veteran of the civil war looking at them remarked to several more like himself:

"We didn't look that young and green when we started south, did we?"

"Why of course we didn't." "Really those boys look almost too young to start to war. They will be tender and unable to stand the hardships."

"By the way, how old were you when you enlisted?"

"Nineteen."

"And you?"

"Twenty."

And inquiry developed the fact that the ages of the group of veterans present ranged from 17 to 21 when they enlisted, somewhat less, in fact, than those of the boys starting to Cuba.

Supper was served at 6:15 o'clock by the Marys and Marthas, of whom Mrs. R. S. Nelson is teacher. Reports were made from teachers and officers and the Rev. F. B. Madden, the pastor, gave his idea of a model Sunday school.

CITY SCHOOL TEACHERS.
HAVE CLASS IN WRITING.
A class in writing was organized Tuesday afternoon for teachers in the city schools. Eighty teachers are enrolled and Prof. W. C. Springate is in charge. The class will meet each Tuesday at the close of school in the high school building and will be in session forty minutes. A wish expressed at a recent teachers' meeting led to organization of the class, enrollment in which is voluntary.

LETTERS FROM ENGLAND CONTAIN BUT SLIGHT REFERENCE TO WAR

Little Said of World Affairs in Missives Received by Percy A. Jenkinson—Word from South Africa.

Percy A. Jenkinson receives a weekly letter from his parents who are resident in England, but strange as it may seem, these letters are of just a "homey" character and no reference is made to the war. From these letters one would never know that a great war was in progress. One reason, no doubt, is because the writers realize that a strict censorship is being observed by the authorities and nothing of a special interest will be allowed to go thru the mail, and still another reason is that written stories about the war, while more in detail, will be received here weeks after the general news has been transmitted by cable.

Mr. Jenkinson also receives frequent letters from his sister, Mrs. Fred Thorburn, who is living at Johannesburg, South Africa. Mrs. Thorburn has been living there ever since her marriage and her husband has been a resident of that locality for twenty-three years, where he is an assayer in the government office. During the rebellion which broke out there in the early days of the war when some of the German colonists sought to cause an uprising of the Boers, Mr. Thorburn served as lieutenant of a volunteer company and was in an actual campaign of about three months' warfare. Writing of his experiences, Mrs. Thorburn said "Fred did very well in the rebellion and was in command of a troop of forty, and following the campaign was complimented by Vandenberg for the good work done. During all the campaign the company lost only one man, a Russian miner. They were for days upon end without food suffering blazing days and freezing nights. Again and again they slept with their clothes soaked on them, and yet, strange as it may seem, not one of the company was seriously ill."

CABIN OF RECLUSE WHO LIVED NEAR PISGAH BURNED

Old Man Who Has Spent Many Years Alone Now Haunts Spot Where Cabin Is in Ashes.

For nearly half a century a man named John Lufmeyer has occupied a log cabin in the vicinity of Sulphur Springs. He seemed to care for no one and wanted to be left alone. While he seemed to be German his language was peculiar and native Germans were unable to understand all he said many of his words being strange to them and his knowledge of English was very slight. He had a dog which he treated like a human companion, taking him to the table and sharing the meal with him and on very cold nights he had been known to take his horse inside the cabin.

His cared little for cleanliness and the cabin had stood so long without attention that it had begun to rot and the floor was much out of level. Last Sunday while he was getting dinner the structure took fire from the fire and was destroyed. Neighbors appeared and much of the contents were removed but a table was left and it was hard work to keep the old man from rushing into the flames and certain death to get the valued piece of furniture. He seemed inconsolable and unwilling to leave the place and was only persuaded to camp for the night in a neighbor's barn and since that time it is reported that he has gathered together some old clothes and camped near the spot so long occupied by him. He may or may not have money hidden away.

The neighbors are ready to do what is right and best but it is hard to decide what that is. He has a niece, who would care for him if he would deed her his little farm but those who know him best say he wouldn't be satisfied to live with her or any one else.

BOND ISSUE QUESTION WILL SOON BE UP TO THE PEOPLE

Question Again Discussed at Meeting of Chamber of Commerce Directors—Department Committees Announced.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night turned largely into a discussion of the proposed bond issue for city improvements. It was not brought up at this time for any official action but the directors present after the subject had been introduced by Mayor H. J. Rodgers, expressed their views. In the absence of President John J. Reeve, who is ill, W. J. Brady, vice president, presided, and when the roll was called by Secretary Rodgers, it was indicated that almost the full quota of members was present. Letters were read from the Addressograph company and from the Sheldon school, suggesting that representatives of their companies might arrange for lectures here before the chamber of commerce if such arrangement is desired. This matter was referred to the secretary for future consideration.

Under reports from department heads Mr. Byrns referred to the special opening day this week, the arrangements for which have been partially in charge of the retail committee.

The City's Bonded Debt.

H. J. Rodgers, chairman of the public affairs committee, mentioned that the council expects very soon to take action on the ordinance providing for a bond issue. He explained that the purpose of the proposed bonds is to provide funds for the extension of the water and light departments and the improvement of the fire department. In the course of discussion it developed that the total bonded indebtedness of Jacksonville is now about $76,000, and that the legal limit is about $208,400. With the installation of a new pumping equipment it would be possible to close up the south side station and this alone would effect a saving which would almost wipe out the entire bonded indebtedness in the course of the twenty years.

It was pointed out in the course of discussion that the present is an exceptionally favorable time for floating a bond issue as money is easy and it is probable that 4 per cent bonds could be sold, thus allowing the city very favorable interest rates. Everybody present seemed to feel favorable to the bond proposition, as it is realized that if the city is to forge ahead and get on a more stable financial footing, that a bond issue is necessary.

Question up to People.

Mayor Rodgers said that it is the expectation of the present administration to wipe out the floating indebtedness by the time the four years in office has expired. Further it developed from the discussion that the attitude of the city council will not be that the bond issue is some special interest of theirs but rather that they will point out the need and explain to the people what can be done with the money and the benefits resulting. In other words, this is a matter which belongs to the people and the council will simply call attention to facts as they are, advise the people what they think is best, and then expect the public to take the action which seems the most reasonable.

George Vasconcellos, representing the young men's booster club, was present to discuss the question of some back dues and it was the generally expressed opinion that it would be much better to seek for new enthusiasm and support from the young men's booster members than to make any special effort to collect some small amount of dues that would not amount to more than $24 for membership some time in the past.

Secretary Rodgers announced that the following new members had been received: Mollenbrok & McCullough, F. W. Woolworth & Co., C. E. Hudgin Furniture Co., and Clarence L. Depew.

Committees Announced.

Announcements were made by the chairman of the following departments of the members who will serve with them during the coming year:

Public Affairs—H. J. Rodgers, Edward Rowe, C. H. Rammelkamp, F. J. Hopper, F. J. Andrews.

Retail Merchants—Frank Byrns, George T. Douglas, A. R. Taylor, L. A. Barnhart, Henry Frisch, James McGinnis, Frank J. Waddell, J. I. Graham, C. L. York, Byron Armstrong.
